

GW4-CAT Training Provision

The GW4 Partnership offer a number of tools and training for collaboration, including:	Collaboration in Isolation Communication for Collaboration The GW4 Crucible brings together future research leaders in a mentored training and support programme.
Bespoke Courses provided by GW4-CAT Programme include:	Working with Patient Groups to enhance and present your research: beyond PPI (in collaboration with NIHR Peninsula Applied Research Collaboration) Thriving at Work: Resilience Training for professionals Scientific Communication Research Reproducibility Thesis Planning and Delivery
Specialised Courses provided by Bristol Medical School Examples:	Advanced epigenetic epidemiology Causal Inference in Epidemiology: Concepts and Methods Mendelian Randomisation Improving your Stata: data management, publication-quality outputs, and automating tasks Introduction to Diagnostic Research Research Governance Introduction to Data Visualisation and Web Applications Using R
Generic Training Provided by the Doctoral Colleges at Universities of Bath, Bristol, Cardiff and Exeter Examples	Personal and Professional Development Experimental Design, statistics and bioinformatics Data Skills and management Intellectual Property and Commercialisation of Research Collaborative Working Good Research Practice Public Engagement Public and Patient Involvement Present and communication of Research Equality and Diversity – Your Role and Responsibility (Exeter podcasts include: Being a BAME Researcher, Activism advocacy and being black in HE, Being a Disabled Researcher)

GW4-CAT-Fellows will be members of staff at their home institution and will thus be able to access staff development opportunities
Examples

Leadership and Management
e.g. Female Leadership Initiative, Leading Collaborative Teams, Exploring Leadership, Managing People and Teams.
Welsh Crucible Developing future research leaders for Wales (<http://www.welshcrucible.org.uk/>)
Learning and Teaching
Courses aimed at research staff and research supervisors
Research Staff Development and Training
Courses using the Vitae Research Development Framework